Relief Requested

Defendants deny the allegations contained in the paragraph beginning with “Wherefore, on their own behalf . . .” on pages 22-23 of the complaint, including all subparts 1-4, and specifically deny that plaintiffs are entitled to any relief whatsoever.

Finally, any allegations contained in plaintiffs’ complaint that have not been expressly admitted above are denied.

FIRST DEFENSE

Plaintiffs’ complaint should be dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

SECOND DEFENSE

Plaintiffs’ complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

THIRD DEFENSE

Defendants affirmatively assert immunity as to some or all of plaintiffs’ claims pursuant to the Eleventh Amendment to the United States Constitution.

FOURTH DEFENSE

Defendants affirmatively assert all common law and/or statutory immunities to which they may be entitled, including qualified immunity, as well as any defenses which are or may become available to defendants pursuant to the Mississippi Tort Claims Act.

FIFTH DEFENSE

Some or all of plaintiffs' claims are barred for failure to properly exhaust their administrative remedies.

SIXTH DEFENSE

Defendants affirmatively assert all defenses to which they are, or may become entitled to through discovery in this action, under 20 U.S.C. §§ 1400 et seq., 28 U.S.C. § 2254, 42 U.S.C. § 1983, 42 U.S.C. §§ 12131 et seq., the Prison Litigation Reform Act, and/or any other provisions of federal or state law.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

Some or all of plaintiffs' claims are barred by judicial abstention doctrines, including, but not limited, to the Younger, Colorado River, Burford, and/or Pullman abstention doctrines.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

Some or all of plaintiffs' claims are barred by their lack of standing, the doctrine of mootness, because they are not ripe for judicial review, and/or are insufficient so as to warrant an award of injunctive or declaratory relief.

NINTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims fail to meet the requirements for class status under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23.

TENTH DEFENSE

To the extent plaintiffs seek equitable relief, such claims are barred by plaintiffs' adequate remedy at law.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

Some or all of plaintiffs' claims are barred by the doctrines of laches, waiver and/or estoppel.

TWELFTH DEFENSE

Some or all of plaintiffs' claims are barred by the applicable statute of limitations.

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

Defendants affirmatively assert all defenses which are or may become available to them through further discovery under Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(c) and/or 12(b).

FOR THESE REASONS, Mississippi Department of Corrections, Christopher B. Epps (in his Official Capacity as Commissioner of Corrections), Mississippi Parole Board, and Steve Pickett (in his Official Capacity as Chair of the Mississippi Parole Board) respectfully request that their Answer and Defenses be received and request the Court to dismiss plaintiffs' complaint with prejudice, and at plaintiffs' sole cost, and award defendants any attorneys' fees and other expenses to which they may be entitled pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988 or any other applicable statute or basis.

THIS the 2nd day of September, 2014.

Respectfully submitted,
